“PERMANENT WHOLE LIFE”

Presented by The Alchemy Theatre Company for

The New York International Fringe Festival – FringeNYC

at CLASSIC STAGE COMPANY

August 11; 13; 14; 22; 26, 2006

The Alchemy Theatre Company of Manhattan, Inc. presents the New York premiere of “Permanent Whole Life” by Zayd Dohrn, at the Classic Stage Company, 136 East 13th Street (between 3rd & 4th Avenues) for The New York International Fringe Festival – FringeNYC. The new black comedy is directed by Wesley Savick, with set design by Richard Wadsworth Chambers. The cast includes Ken Baltin, Stacy Fischer, Gabriel Field and Lisa Morse. Performance schedule (day and times) below.

“Permanent Whole Life” concerns an unprincipled life insurance investigator in Palm Beach who seduces a young widow fresh from the funeral home. Florida is no place for the living in this savage comedy about sex, death, and the relationships that outlast us. IRNE Award-Winner for Best New Play, 2005.

Playwright Zayd Dohrn grew up in NYC and Chicago, attended Brown University, and received his MFA in playwriting at Boston University. His first play, Shameless, premiered to raves at the Boston Actors Workshop. The Boston Globe named it one of 2002’s “Critic’s Picks.” In addition to numerous professional readings, his plays have received productions at the Producers Club, Boston Director’s Lab, and Boston Playwrights Theatre, where Haymarket, was nominated for seven IRNE awards and his new play, Permanent Whole Life, receive its world premiere this year.

The Alchemy Theatre Company Of Manhattan, Inc. exists to produce vivid theatrical productions, devoted to visceral storytelling of contemporary, classical, and new works, and a collaborative approach to artistry, which will resonate with a diverse New York audience. Two of the past acclaimed productions of ATCNY have been the first NYC productions of “Speed The Plow: and “The Normal Heart” after their original New York premieres. www.alchemytheatre.org
